Attendance Heroes

Hendrix

Elin

Rheeta

Oreo

These are our new attendance heroes. The names were chosen by the children. They will be used around the school to promote good attendance. Hendrix is for here, Elin is for everyday, Rheeta is for ready and Oreo is for on time.

Competition Time

Design a poster or attendance leaflet featuring our attendance heroes and our new attendance motto

Here Every day Ready On time

DEADLINE: Friday 3rd November 2023

An aspirational community that enjoys learning and contributes to an ever-changing world.

We are: Resilient Respectful Curious Inclusive We: Aim High

The winning poster and leaflet will win prizes. The posters will be displayed around the school and the leaflet will be given to new students

Lines of Communication

The lines of communication for parent if they have any queries or complaints is as follows:

First - speak to/make an appointment with the class teacher

Second - if it is not resolved, make an appointment to speak to the Phase Leader. Nursery and Reception - Miss Rose, Years 1 and 2 - Miss Chang, Years 3 and 4 - Miss Young, Years 5 and 6 - Mrs Hinckson.

Third - if you feel it is necessary to take this further, please make an appointment to speak one of the Assistant Head Teachers. SEND - Mrs. Mitchell, Curriculum and Behaviour - Mr. Sarkis, Teaching and Learning and Assessment - Miss Mackenzie.

By following this procedure, all the relevant parties to the problem will be involved and it will help to resolve the problem in an appropriate time frame.

School Uniform

We would like to remind all parents that children should be wearing the correct school uniform everyday. Please see the picture below of some of our children who are dressed immaculately.

High school applications for year 6

High School applications need to be completed and submitted by 31st October 2023.

All year 6 parents will be sent a google form to complete with the 16 digit code they will receive when the form has been submitted.
